

PAUL SMITH'S COLLEGE
ADIRONDACK
WATERSHED
INSTITUTE

Science for Community Solutions:
Research, Tools, and Action for Adirondack Waters
One-Day Conference

Tuesday, February, 17th, 2026

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Adirondack Room, Joan Weill Adirondack Library, Paul Smith's College

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

- 9:00 a.m. Registration & Tabling Session
Coffee, tea, and light breakfast items
- 9:45 a.m. Welcoming Remarks
Paul Smith's College, Adirondack Research Consortium, Adirondack Council, Adirondack Watershed Institute
- 10:00 a.m. Panel: Road Salt Best Management Practices
An overview of research and monitoring on road salt impacts as well as real solutions and best practices at the municipal level and legislative actions at the state level.
- Moderator: Dr. Chelsea Smith, Adirondack Watershed Institute
 - Lija Treibergs, Adirondack Watershed Institute
 - Superintendent Mike Farrell and Deputy Superintendent Tyler Jarvis, Town of Peru
 - Superintendent Brad Hathaway, Village of Lake Placid
 - Andrew Williams, Adirondack Council
- 10:50 a.m. Break & Tabling Session
- 11:00 a.m. Presentation: Wake Sports in the Adirondacks
Local actions and lake-friendly approaches to mitigate the impacts of wake sports on our wildlife and ecosystems.
- Claudia Braymer, Protect the Adirondacks
 - Dr. Lizz Schuyler, Adirondack Center for Loon Conservation
- 11:30 a.m. Presentation: GIS Tools and Apps for Easier Clean Water Administration
An overview of the tool being used to monitor septic replacement in the county.
- Sara Frankenfeld, Warren County Planning
 - Ethan Gaddy, Warren County Planning
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch in the Bobcat Lounge, Joan Weill Student Center

- 1:15 p.m. Presentation: New York State Environmental Facilities Corporation - Programs, Funding and Income Surveys - How-to guidance for accessing funding programs
- Gabby Smith, NYS Environmental Facilities Corporation
 - Nick Demitraszek, NYS Environmental Facilities Corporation
- 1:45 p.m. Panel: Community-Based Water Protection Strategies
An overview of the different tools and resources that lake associations, communities, landowners, and others can access to better protect the health of their lakes.
- Chris Navitsky, Lake George Association
 - Guy Middleton, Upper Saranac Foundation
 - Kelley Tucker, Ausable Freshwater Center
 - Erin Vennie-Vollrath, DEC
 - Dr. Sara Kelly, Adirondack Watershed Institute
- 2:45 p.m. Federal and State Legislative and Funding Updates
- Andrew Williams, Adirondack Council
- 2:55 p.m. Closing Remarks
(Adirondack Watershed Institute)
- 3:00 p.m. Tabling Session & Optional Tours
*Note: For the optional tours, you will need to walk across campus. Please wear safe walking shoes/boots and winter outdoor clothing.
- 3:15 p.m. Optional Tour of Paul Smith's College Mobile Emergency Response Operations Center
- 3:35 p.m. Optional Tour of the Adirondack Watershed Institute's NYS-Certified Water Quality Lab
- 4:00 p.m. Conference Adjourns
-

COMING IN APRIL!

30th Annual Conference on the Adirondacks

“Key Issues Shaping the Adirondack Future”

Wednesday & Thursday, April 15-16, 2026, High Peaks Resort, Lake Placid, NY

For program and registration information:

<https://www.adkresearch.org/events>