

30th Annual Conference on the Adirondacks
April 15th and 16th, 2026
High Peaks Resort, Lake Placid, NY

Key Issues Shaping the Adirondack Future

Note: This is a draft program, we are adding a few more things, please check back!

Wednesday, April 15th, 2026

- 8:00 a.m. Registration, Coffee, Poster, and Exhibit Set-Up (Avalanche Pass)
- 8:45 a.m. Welcome and Messages: Dr. Ellen Percy Kraly, ARC President
- 9:00 a.m. First Adirondackers: 12,000 Years of Indigenous Peoples in the Adirondack Uplands
- Dr. Curt Stager, Draper-Lussi Endowed Chair in Lake Ecology and Paleocology, Paul Smith's College
 - David Kanietakeron Fadden, Wolf Clan of the Kanienkehaka
- 10:00 a.m. Panel: Timbuctoo: Creating Awareness, Access, and Opportunity
- Paul Hai, SUNY ESF, Timbuctoo Institute, Moderator, "What is the Timbuctoo Institute"
 - Emme Christie, SUNY ESF, Systems Manager and Research Coordinator, "Measures of Success"
 - Alex Walls, SUNY ESF, Assistant Director, "Demonstration of Success"
- 10:45 a.m. Break
- 11:15 a.m. Panel: Nature on the Move – Wildlife and Habitats in a Changing World
- Mark Watson, Moderator,
 - Joelee Tooley, Cornell University, Snapshot NY
 - John Davis, Adirondack Council, Overview of Wildlife Movement and Habitat Connectivity
 - Jessica Raspitha, Assistant Director, Environment Division, Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe
- Noon Lunch – (Great Range)
- Presentation: "From Nepal to the Adirondacks: Community, Conservation, and Lived Landscapes", Dr. Melanie Johnson, Assistant Professor David Simmons, and students from Paul Smith's College will share reflections and insights from their recent trip to Nepal.

1:00 Movement Session:

- Rose Pasquarello Beauchamp, University of Rochester

1:30 p.m. Panel: Invasives Update:

- Brian Greene, Moderator, APIPP
- Jason Denham, DEC and Jim Lieberum, Warren Co. SWCD - Lake George Hemlock Coalition
- Michele Curry, Blue Mountain Lake Association - Aquatic Invasive Species Management
- Angello Johnson, Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe Environment Division - Black Ash Protection Measures

2:30 p.m. Break

3:00 p.m. Concurrent Sessions

Panel 1 (Algonquin)	Remoteness in the Adirondack Park: Why It Matters and How We Protect It, <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Jackie Bowen, Adirondack Council• Pete Nelson, Adirondack Wilderness Advocates
Panel 2 (Iroquois)	Drinking Water Source Protection Program, Opportunities for Water Infrastructure Funding, <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Chaz Rorick, NYS Department of Health• Gabby Smith, Environmental Facilities Corporation
Panel 3 (Wright)	How You Too Can Build Watershed-Wide Connections - The Black River Watershed Coalition Case Study Moderator: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Sunita Halasz, Adirondack Council Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nichelle Swisher, Lewis County Soil and Water Conservation District• Katie Whitkovits, Hamilton County Soil and Water Conservation District• Jillian Lee, NYS Tug Hill Commission

3:45 p.m. Concurrent Sessions

Panel 1 (Algonquin)	Shoreline Biodiversity on Upper Saranac Lake, <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Michale Glennon, Paul Smith's College Adirondack Watershed Institute,• Alec Cimini, Paul Smith's College Adirondack Watershed Institute An Assessment of the use of ProcellaCOR in Lake George, NY, SUNY Plattsburgh
Panel 2 (Iroquois)	Equity, Belonging & the Land We Share,

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tiffany Rea-Fisher, Director, Adirondack Diversity Initiative
Panel 3 (Wright)	Publishing in AJES, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Joe Henderson, University of Vermont • Ellen Percy Karly, Colgate University

4:30 p.m. Reception (The Den)

Thursday, April 16th, 2026

8:00 a.m. Conference Re-opens, Coffee

9:00 a.m. Keynote: Bridging the Social and Ecological Sciences through Community-engaged Research: Insights from Appalachia,

- Dr. Jamie Shinn, Associate Professor, SUNY ESF

9:45 a.m. Panel: Where People and Ecosystems Meet—Perspectives on Carrying Capacity, Saranac Chain of Lakes

- Claudia Braymer, Moderator, Executive Director, Protect the Adirondacks
- Chris Amato, Conservation Director and Counsel, Protect the Adirondacks
- Dave Gibson, Managing Partner, Adirondack Wild

10:15 a.m. Break

10:30 a.m. Panel: The Evolution of Energy Technologies:

- Navigating New York’s Energy Transition, Kevin Lanahan, New York ISO
- Renewable Energy Sector and Economic Development/Jobs, Andrew Rush, CHPE
- The Importance of Energy Storage, Camille Warner, NYSERDA

11:15 a.m. Panel: Adirondack Rural Community Opportunities and Challenges: Essex County Perspectives, Sunita Halasz, Moderator

- Joe Pete Wilson, Supervisor, Town of Keene, NY

12:15 p.m. Lunch (Great Range) - Annual Awards Luncheon

- Unveiling of the ACORN Rural Resilience Roadmap Website, Cedar Young
- Presentation of the Richard H. Morse Student Award: Alexander Amann, SUNY Plattsburgh
- Presentation of the 2026 Elizabeth Thorndike Adirondack Achievement Award: Jon Erickson, University of Vermont

1:30 p.m. Workshop: Connecting Higher Education Research with Community Priorities,

- Moderators: Sunita Halasz, Adirondack Council, and Diane White Husic, St. Lawrence University.
 - This workshop is a follow-up to the North Country Climate Ready Workshop and St. Lawrence University's Community-High Ed Collaboration for Community Resilience fall program.
- Panel Presentation, Audience Discussion, and "Speed Dating" Exercise"

3:00 p.m. Adjourn

Tables:

- The Intersection of Art and Science, Michale Glennon, Paul Smith's College, Adirondack Watershed Institute
- Drinking Water Source Protection Program, Chaz Rorick, NYS Department of Health
- Opportunities for Water Infrastructure Funding, Gabby Smith, Environmental Facilities Corporation
- Survey of Climate Change and Lake Ecosystems (SCALE) Project, Jon Borrelli, The Jefferson Project at Lake George
- Protect the Adirondacks, Claudia Bremer
- AdkAction, Sawyer Bailey
- Ausable Freshwater Center, Marque Moffett

New this year:

Visual/Auditory Exhibit: Stephanie Ashenfelder, University of Rochester, Stationary Visual and Auditory Art Installations Setup Throughout the Conference Space